From Shepherd to King

Chapter 11 — May 10, 2015

I. David is chosen as king. 1 Samuel 16-17

A. God saw kingly potential in David.

He chose David his servant and took him from the sheep pens; from tending the sheep he brought him to be the shepherd of his people Jacob, of Israel his inheritance. And David shepherded them with integrity of heart; with skillful hands he led them. – Psalm 78:70-72

B. Others did not see David as a king.

C. Jonathan, Saul's son, acknowledges David as future king.

II. A long season of preparation. 1 Samuel 18-31

A. God uses Saul's hostility to develop David's character.

He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do such a thing to my master, the LORD's anointed, or lay my hand on him; for he is the anointed of the LORD." – 1 Samuel 24:6

B. David depends on God for guidance and help.

C. David waits patiently to be inaugurated as king over Israel. (2 Samuel 2:1-7)

III. David points to Jesus as the True King.

A. David was anointed with oil; Jesus was anointed with the Spirit.

As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased." – Matthew 3:16-17

B. Other parallels to Jesus in The Story so far.

1. Jesus is the Passover Lamb (Exodus)

2. Jesus and Joshua mean the same: "Savior"

3. Jesus is the ultimate "deliverer" (Judges)

4. Jesus is the Redeemer (Ruth)
