THE GOOD LIFE

“What is more, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ.” – Philippians 3:8, NIV

What do you think of when you hear the expression The Good Life? In this beautiful area of the country that we call home, The Good Life might mean for some enjoying a sunset at the beach ... (I would have a hard time arguing with that one!) It might mean having a successful career, beautiful home and two paid off cars in the driveway ... It might mean having enough money to take vacations ... It might mean having the health to enjoy all those things. For each of us, this phrase The Good Life conjures up images of things we hope for and expectations we have set for ourselves. The group of eleven of us from Redeemer who attended the week-long mission trip to San Diego spent time each day considering this phrase personally and then exploring Scripture to see how God would want us to understand The Good Life.

What we learned is that we are created for *The Good Life. Jesus says in John 10:10 “... I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.” God created everything “good” in the Garden of Eden, but mankind and our sin tarnished that beauty and goodness. God, however, never gives up restoring us to *The Good Life. Through His Son Jesus, He continues to bring us to a full and good life.

We can trust this because we believe that God Himself is good. (Psalm 106:1 declares, “Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever.”) And in His goodness, He wants good things for His people (Psalm 139:5). But how does one respond when we see so much brokenness and lack of goodness in the world around us? God may be good, but evil still has power in this world, and it seems that it is bound and determined to thwart whatever good God wants to bless His creation with.

Unfortunately, when faced with pain, suffering and brokenness we humans are often led astray by false imitations of *The Good Life that God intends for us. Have you ever tried to solve your problems with a false imitation? Didn't it promise you relief, pleasure and even freedom? But what did it deliver? The truth is that if you and I are to grasp the only true source of The Good Life that Jesus offers us, we are going to have to let go of cheap imitations – to make room for the goodness that God wants to pour into our lives!

What each of us needs to realize as we journey through life is that The Good Life* is found only in Jesus Christ. He is the Good Shepherd who guides us to where the green pastures are. We do best to follow Him – and to bring others to Him also. If you have found The Good Life, don't you think there are

MISSION TRIP EXPERIENCE

For this summer's mission trip, 11 students and adults stayed the week in San Diego and served at three organizations. These were:

St. Vincent de Paul – St Vincent is dedicated to helping the homeless get off the streets and providing resources for them to get on their feet. Father Joe's Village serves about 800 homeless people a meal every day.

San Diego Rescue Mission – this mission handles food distribution, clothing, furniture, electronics and other miscellaneous items that may be sold in nearby thrift stores for low income person. They provide a programmatic opportunity for males with backgrounds in crime, violence, addiction, etc. to work at the mission. This gives the clients work experience for future.

Adult Day Care – this is a safe place for people to come and be stimulated cognitively and socially. They exist to try to maximize independence in their clients, attempting to prolong their time before entering a nursing home.

Here are what some of the participants had to say!

Jonah Glassman: "It was my first mission trip and it really impacted me to do it, and I hope it really impacted others who went. I think that the people that we helped are still homeless, but hopefully we made a small impact and every little bit counts.

One day there was this little boy who had a broken backpack, and I was just very glad to give him a meal because he looked skinny and like he hadn't eaten much. Service like this is a way to put the face of Jesus into the world."

Sophia Hofer: "This was my first mission trip and it really impacted me to really look at all the pain and misery going around in our world. I hope it impacted everyone else who went on the trip too. I know that even when we helped feed the homeless, they are still homeless, but even that small effort might help them get back on their feet. I'm happy that I went, I got to meet new people and bond with them, and help the people who need it most.

God is working with us everyday to help the people with lots of trouble and hardships in their life. I am happy to serve God in this way, to help everyone we can. I would go on another mission trip to serve God, help people, and bond with our group."

Bain Ecarius: During this trip I had many great experiences which I will remember from this mission trip. One great thing I learned is the homeless people we saw on this trip were helped out a lot just from us serving them food for one week. Plus I found out during this trip I can help these people in need by just making one good choice. One example would be having the homeless people be included in our games at the barbecue. Another thing I learned is if you put yourself out there you can meet a lot of great people from different places. For example the Arizona group that we spent our service time with were really nice people. Throughout this shows the great experiences I had and the new things I learned from this mission trip.

Tessia Iadicicco: Our San Diego Mission Trip was very impactful. It didn't only impact us, but the San Diego community. The group I was a part of helped every day at San Diego Rescue Mission and an Adult Day Care. At the Rescue Mission, we organized hundreds of donations, from books to clothes to household appliances, every day. At first it felt like we weren't doing much, being behind the scenes. But soon enough, it made me realize just how important our work was. We may not have been on the front lines, but we were helping the community just as much. Similarly, at the adult day care, it didn't feel like we were doing all that much, at first, but we were still helping people. It taught me that people don't have to have the world against them to need help. Even just by helping those one or two people that we spent a few hours getting to know every day, we were making a difference in someone's life.

We were also able to get to know the other people that were taking part in the mission trip and learn more about them and where they're from. This mission trip was a very special experience, and I look forward to taking part in many more, in many places, in the future."

Rae Lee: Certainly this mission trip was out of my comfort zone, however, one of the most rewarding experience in many ways. Serving meals to the homeless people was indeed caring gesture of my heart and conveying what I learned from our Lord, Jesus Christ.

I'm very grateful for the opportunity to serve where it needed and awaken me to care about them with respect and dignity. Also realized how blessed we are. When I saw their tired, sunken eyes, my heart ached for them. Once, they were precious child of their mothers. We need better parenting education. How do we do that? I suppose we take small steps to big steps toward betterment.

From this mission trip, I saw, out there, many good people are at work to serve the Lord. As I was serving at the St. Vincent for two days, I met two gentlemen volunteering every Monday. One elderly gentleman was standing next to me and passing out plastic forks to each homeless people for their lunch and he warmly greeted to every one of them. I was impressed and moved by his kindness and caring. He's been coming to St. Vincent every Monday, to serve for a couple of years. The other gentleman was at the main dish serving area, for seven years on Mondays. I don't know what it takes to serve like that. God must be at work.

Watching our youth group people working hard and enjoying each other, made me feel good about our future as a Christian.

For another two days, I served at the Rescue Mission and Adult Day Care Center. At the Rescue Mission, we sorted out donated items, and at the adult day care center, I listened to their life experiences and helped their small activities. One client played piano for me and prayed together as we were holding hands. I felt like sharing Jesus's love.

From this mission trip I found two dear friends, "B" and Chris. They took me to many different places and most wonderfully nice and funny, what a blessing for me. Our beloved Pastor Augie, he's always considerate and thoughtful in guiding us during this mission trip. This mission trip was truly rewarding experience for me.

Chris Hofer. The Mission Trip actually exceeded my expectations and I am so happy that I joined the group at the request of my daughter. I thought about God's work that I would be performing in helping others out, but spending time with the regular staff, the homeless, the other volunteers, and the personal connection, was something I could not foresee. I did not realize we have a tent city in downtown San Diego, with the 4th largest homeless population in the nation. Seeing this first hand was eye opening to me. We had the understanding that we would be rotated throughout the week and participate in assisting different organizations. That actually did not happen, as our assignments were pretty much made before we arrived.

My group was assigned to one of Father Joe's Villages (St. Vincent de Paul) working the kitchen for the week. Hard work for about 5 hours each day prepping the food, serving 800+ plates a day, clean up, and prepping food again before our shift was over. Spending time with the people, helping the handicapped with their food and drink, bonding with the other youth group from Phoenix and of course the full time staff was amazing. Folks were really appreciative of us donating our time, rolling up our sleeves and helping out. This type of work requires many hands to get the work done. The more that are present, the easier it is on everyone as a whole.

I really felt good about myself, a personal satisfaction that I was making a small difference in their lives with God working through me. I am very proud of our youth as they worked hard and were very responsible. We live in a bubble up here in North County, and this is a really good experience for our youth to see people are struggling out in the real world and need our help. Each day we had devotions in the morning and evening, and an evening round up discussing each other's day was very enlightening. I truly hope the Youth Group participates in a Mission Trip like this once a year.

ALTAR FLOWERS

Thanks to everyone who has donated to help support the altar flower arrangements for each Sunday. There are still a few opportunities to signup. You can do so by signing the FLOWER CHART at the bottom of the steps. Flowers may be taken home after services are over, or if you leave them, they are used to take to sick and homebound. A special note: on July 30, a Hawaiian arrangement was done thanks to the generosity of a local orchid grower, Southeast Orchids, who donated the two orchids to the church as "thankfulness for the many blessings he has received". If you are interested in purchasing ones like this for $9.50, email me for more information at di.haarmeyer@icloud.com.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

During the Summer we have been using a curriculum for our Sunday School called "Hands On Bible" and have received great reviews from both the teachers and kids. This curriculum works on the same idea as VBS and creates great interaction with the kids and helps them connect their daily lives to God. We have also added a curriculum for our nursery children to teach them about God.

Rally Day is fast approaching and will be held on August 27th with a performance during the 10:30 service. The children will sing and present the "Armor of God" followed by fun activities in celebration of their promotion to the next grade level and the beginning of a new school year.

BRIDGE GROUP

It was another lovely Carlsbad day when we met on the 28th of July at Marie Voien's home for lunch. Three games of bridge followed and you can guess what comes next! The Scores!

Our hostess came in with the highest score followed by second high, Carolyn Schmaltz. Jo Voertmann and I tried for low score but Jo won that contest.

This group meets on the 4th Friday of each month with the exception of November when we play on the 3rd Friday. The holiday season is upon us and December is dark but for us we all prepare for the Christmas season; before we all know it the year comes to a close. In January we begin all over again.

If you would like to play bridge or substitute please let me know by calling 760-707-6677 or e-mail: baconfaye3@gmail.com. I will be happy to include you in the group.

On August 25th we will play at the home of Carolyn Schmaltz.

God has richly blessed us and friendships are just one of His many blessings. As we sat around the table enjoying our lunch we each told the story of how we met our husbands for the very first time. So many of the stories were centered around military uniforms of the Army, Navy, Air Force, blind dates, dress codes of the day and the yellow shirt story!

- Faye Bacon
Bridge Coordinator

BIRTHDAY GROUP

The Birthday Celebrants not-so-small group was started about the same time the congregation started. There were four couples in the beginning and Renata Hartley made the arrangements. The purpose was fellowship and the group ate lunch out to celebrate each other's birthday. We still get together on a THURSDAY or FRIDAY each month to celebrate the birthdays in that month. Everyone is welcome to join but you do need a reservation with the Birthday Coordinator, Jo Voertman, jvbythesea@cox.net, 760-721-6674. In addition to your meal, we do request a one dollar contribution per celebrant which goes to a charity selected by the month's honorees.

We celebrated the birthdays of Jim Brunner, BJ Lahr, Lois O'Donnell, Lois Palmer, Patricia Sax and Marie and Earl Voien in July and contributed one hundred eighty ($180) dollars to Lutheran World Relief.

The August Lunch will be THURSDAY, August 10 at 11:30 a.m. at the Hunter Steak House, 1221 Vista Way in Oceanside (by the southbound I-5 onramp). Lunches range from eight ($8) to fifteen ($15) dollars.

In addition to your lunch we request a one dollar per celebrant contribution that will go to Rady's Children's Hospital.

SALT & LIGHT

Do you remember sitting in class while your teacher or professor lectured and you realized he/she had left out a very important piece of information? You listened intently for that missing piece when you concluded that the instructor was not going to mention it. Did you raise your hand to offer the missing element or did you do nothing? The Salt & Light Ministry is raising its hand to remind us all that God had a significant role in the formation of this nation. Our ministry wants to partner with you to restore our nation's biblical and moral foundations, currently under attack by public policy, increasing intolerance, social engineering within the public education system and, of course, the media. To right the ship, we believe that Christian citizenship must be understood; that we become knowledgeable on the issues and what our elected officials' positions are; then vote accordingly. We are not Democrat or Republican, Independent or Green. We belong to the 'Biblical party'. We are interested in candidates and issues that defend and promote the Christian beliefs into which this nation was born, regardless of party affiliation.

What motivates a Christian to knowingly vote for people, or approve actions that endorse abortion, same sex marriage, or diminishing the rights accorded to all religions in the Constitution? How did we allow such a secular intrusion into areas of God's Law. It did not happen overnight and will not be corrected quickly unless Christians rise up and get involved. As Dr. Thomas Sowell said, "Much of the social history of the Western world over the past three decades, has been a history of replacing what worked with what sounded good"

Living a Christian life benefits the Christian as well as others. Studies have shown what we know to be true, that religion's belief and practice improves our mental and physical health and helps to reduce societal problems such as violence, suicide, substance abuse and divorce. Religion helps strengthen families, improves coping skills, improves scholastic attainment which then helps to reduce poverty.

Even as Christianity comes under attack in the secular media, and as Christians, in many cases, are ridiculed as backwards or ignorant, it is Christian values that form the thread that holds the social fabric together. And even those who would deny its truth cannot help but benefit from its protections.

Government is inherently political and it requires the watchful eye of a religious people, or it will most surely abolish the freedom of religion we now enjoy. Because of what the Bible teaches and the inevitability of its effect on our culture, Christians must care about politics.

Your Salt & Light Co-Leader,
- Jerry Meyer

others who would like to know where to find it? The problem is that just like in Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37), it can be so easy to pass along on the other side of the street – having even some very good reasons to do so.

But as we have been learning from the Apostle Paul in his letter to the Philippians during our summer “Joy” message series, we should put ourselves on the line for the good of others. In Philippians 2:4 Paul clearly tells us to put the needs of others ahead of our own needs! But if we do that, then won't we sacrifice our own reception of The Good Life? The answer is no. To the contrary; what we have received from Jesus is meant to be shared! When Jesus served His disciples by washing their feet, He gave them instructions to go and do likewise. (John 13:15)

What Jesus knows is what the Apostle Paul eventually learned and wants us to know and live out as well – and that is that we truly experience joy and enjoy The Good Life, as we serve others. In fact, this joy is so great that it would be worth letting go of everything we have in this world in order to grasp, Paul says (Philippians 3:8). All of those cheap imitations offer only a false and partial experience of the surpassing greatness of knowing and serving Christ.

May you and I learn to experience The Good Life, by loving and serving others with what we have received freely from Jesus Christ – for our good and for His glory!

Joyfully sharing Jesus with you, Pastor Augie
