“SOLA” Pastor Augie

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God — not by works, so that no one can boast. (Ephesians 2:8-9)

Ephesians 2:8-9 is a sort of “rallying cry” for Lutheran churches, and really for all evangelical churches since the Reformation in the 16th century. In short, this is because Christianity had fallen into a works-righteousness mentality – the idea that people are saved and given eternal life because of things they do (works), rather than because of what Christ has done for us (grace). The Reformation sought to return the Church to an understanding that our eternal salvation is not earned by our works, but rather is a gift of God, given to us freely through the merits of Jesus Christ, God’s only begotten Son.

Our first message series of the year is going to look at the four “Solos” of the Reformation, which are four phrases that summarize the basic theological principles underlying our faith. These phrases were originally expressed in Latin (“sola” is a Latin word meaning “alone”) but take heart, we will be studying them in English! :)

- Sola Scriptura, Scripture alone.
- Sola Gratia, Grace alone.
- Solus Christus, Christ alone.
- Sola Fide, Faith alone.

Each of these are treasures in and of themselves and could serve as the basis of its own message series. To whet your appetite, here is what we’ll be discussing in brief:

Scripture Alone: Most Christian denominations (and some Christian-like churches) say that they are using the Bible in their teaching – and even that the Bible is a source of Truth. Our understanding, however, is that the Bible is our sole source and norm for our teaching and doctrine. That means that we understand the Bible to be God’s inspired and inerrant Holy Word, and as such, we believe that the Bible is God’s means for revealing to us Truth. We may use our intellect, reason and senses, but they are subservient to Scripture. Scripture Alone tells us where we find The Truth.

Grace Alone: Left to our own devices, humankind would be lost in sin and depravity; to suggest that we can somehow save ourselves by our own efforts, not only elevates our goodness and merits far beyond our abilities, but it far diminishes the completed work of Christ on the cross. The understanding of Grace Alone makes clear that we are not saved because of any merit or worthiness in ourselves, but only by the divine goodness of God. God has done all that is necessary for our salvation and He gives it to us as a free gift. This gift comes from the gracious heart of God to us. Grace Alone tells us how our salvation is given.

Christ Alone: There are many churches that use the name Christ, but when you get down to it, the followers of that belief system ultimately put their hope in something else. There are varieties of things that one might put their hope in – reason, senses, science and self are a few. We believe, however, that the ultimate source of our hope is in the accomplished work of Christ on the cross – nothing else. Christ did all that was necessary for our salvation, and is our living and reigning Lord. Our faith is based on Him alone, and not on any other actions, values or name. Christ Alone tells us the source of our salvation and the object of our faith.

Faith Alone: How does a sinner receive God’s gracious gift of salvation? How is a person “made right” with God (justification)? How one answers those questions reveals much about their faith. We believe that there is nothing that we can do to make God love us any more and nothing that we can do to make God love us any less. He loves us because He loves us, and He forgives us because of

GROWTH GROUP MINISTRY

For Growth Group information registration check out <http://www.redeemerbythesea.org/growth-groups/>

A Growth Group is a faith community of 8- 12 people who connect once a weekly or monthly around a common affinity, or interest. They meet for a semester, 12 weeks. Each semester groups are encouraged to commit to service project and a “play” time. They are easy to enter and easy to exit.

Growth Groups can be signed up for on-line or through a Connection Card at one of the weekend services without any hassle or without having to attend a special event. Growth Groups are an important part of Redeemer’s assimilation strategy to move people from being part of the crowd to becoming part of the core of our church family.

There is no better feeling than to know that we could reach out to many members of church for support and that we would be just as willing to reciprocate. We, at Redeemer, are truly a “church family” whose web is spun through our small group bonding and whose strength is gained in numbers. Our small groups are like “one stop shopping” because there is something for everyone! – Melanie Burkholder

We meet year-round and have fun every time. Our group has developed into close relationships which allow us to feel comfortable to ask for help if the need should arise. – Don and Jo Brandt

SALT & LIGHT Dan Bitner

What are we about?

The ultimate goal of the Salt & Light Ministry is to see more people being elected to office who adhere to Biblical teachings. We strive to do this by highlighting the important issues of our time and then providing clarity as to how candidates stand on those issues.

As a part of this, we also delve into exactly what the civic role should be for Christians. The Lutheran Hour Ministries has produced a short, four session study on the Separation of Church & State that we believe will help. Your Salt and Light group is reviewing the material and will plan to present it to you during the Sunday morning Bible Study time. Stay tuned for the dates as we look to fit into the current schedule.

What are we faced with? What would it look like if a game, say football, were played without a rule book? Or, what if we kept the same rules, but over a period of a dozen or so years we remove some pages from the rule book each year? The players who have been playing for many years would be following the entire set of rules, but newer players, who are not privy to the missing pages, would be following only some of the rules. There would be chaos on the field, with the older players not understanding why the newer players seem to ignore the rules. You would need a referee for almost every player, because there would be so many violations.

Now look around today, the Bible (rule book) has been removed from the public arena, but what has replaced it? Our Constitution was written for a moral people and too many of the younger generation lack the moral foundation they need to be good citizens. Can we hire enough referees (a.k.a. police) to keep up with the moral decline we see all around us?

Even Thomas Jefferson, one of the least religious of the Founding Fathers (a Deist?) kept a Bible with him. He actually cut out the parts he felt were superstition, or miracle related, keeping the remainder that he felt included necessary teachings. President George Washington urged the incorporation of religious principles throughout the public arena. In his famous Religion is inherent in all people in every culture in the world throughout all of the history of mankind. This study will examine the 15 major religions of the world. Most if not all of these religions have adherents here in San Diego. In this study we examine the beliefs and tenants of each religion and see what they all have in common as well as the central truth that distinguishes Biblical Christianity from all other religions and sects. Dialogue will be encouraged. So get your coffee and join us downstairs in the Fellowship Hall and deepen your faith and understanding of others. The materials have been purchased from Concordia Publishing House and are provided for each attendee. Pastor Roy Faulstick will lead the presentation and discussion.

REDEEMER SERVES Dave Taylor

As the year comes to a close we have much to be thankful for..

The various hub ministries that were launched this past year have shown common threads that bind us together as a church family. We are woven into one strong cord to serve His purposes. Our strength comes from Jesus in whom all things are possible.

This past year, Redeemer by the Sea as a whole embraced a new community outreach ministry. I'd like to commend Barbara Gehring for bringing this vision to our congregation and spearheading its direction from the start. As "Redeemer Serves" built momentum; it was soon evident that the benchmark goal of 1,000 hours of community service was an under-estimation.

During the 2015 calendar year, Redeemer served our community with more than 2,763 hours of committed service.

The reflections of the many members who participated in our days of service related themes of help, hope, and joy. Redeemer Serves planned projects that directly helped the real needs of our neighbors. We felt renewed hope in our shared faith, and joy as we saw the impact on our neighbors. The cords that bind our hearts in Christian unity were strengthened and stretched in new ways.

With great anticipation, our church family will grow in 2016 with new opportunities to serve our community, sharing God's love with our neighbors.

As one cord, woven and made stronger by God's grace, we move forward in fulfilling His great commission.

kindest regards, Dave

Sea, volunteered to fix bikes for children. My mom, sister, and I, along with others from our church, went to the Del Mar fairgrounds where we found broken bikes., bicycles in boxes and some that just need a little cleaning up. There were two different sections, fixing older bikes or putting together new ones. My sister, Jenna, wanted to fix the older bikes, but those, were too complicated. Besides, you have to have a lot of skills in order to do those bikes. We decided our talents would be more useful putting together newer bikes. To start out, we worked with a small, toddler bicycle.

We looked for tools we needed, (wrenches, screwdrivers, etc...) and worked on putting together the bike. I really enjoyed screwing the pedals on, which in my opinion, were the easiest part. The hardest part was putting together the handlebars on the front of the bike. We ended up doing four bikes in four hours. The first one took the longest. With every assembly, we ran into a different situation. For example, one of the bikes had a problem with the back wheel; another bike encountered a problem with the handlebars.

But there were others to help and I'm so glad my sister didn't cry when my mom accidentally hit her in the face as she was adjusting the handlebars. I really thought we were going to have to stop.

Finally when we had finished, we were hungry after working so hard. We drove back to the church for pizza. That day when I got home, I was so proud of myself for helping children that don't have bikes. It made me appreciate my bicycle and when it breaks, I can take a screwdriver and fix it. What a neat idea!

SUNDAY REFRESHMENTS Ellen Bitner

ELDERS EXPERIENCE POSITIVE CHANGES

Otis Haarmeyer

The elders experienced a new leadership structure during 2015 with very positive results. One significant change was in the member care area that changed from assigned elders to all members that wanted to visit and care for our ill, hospitalized, and shut-in members. Dave Berrier has done an outstanding job in working to continually improve this area. Another example would be the Worship Experience area led by Lyle Meyer. Facility recommendations, starting an annual worship service support training event, planning and participation in the "Family Fun Day" and 25th anniversary were a few of the elders initiatives. Our goal for 2016 is to continue to improve our effectiveness in serving Redeemer. As Chuck Krause leaves our team to become Treasurer, we wish to express our appreciation for his service as an elder. We also want to welcome newly elected elders Tom Burke and Jerry Meyer.

You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. Deuteronomy 6:5

Spending time with family in Indianapolis over Christmas was special. My niece and her husband are expecting their first child. I was reminded of how life changes dramatically with baby #1. It's "game on." No one gets a practice round for what is a performance of a life time. There are no secret formulas, however having a clear purpose to parenting is essential. For their children, parents:

- ▢ Provide a framework for living and growing
- ▢ Equip with a strong sense of identity
- ▢ Provide a fixed point of reference

It's this last point that highlights parent's greatest mission that is to nurture a faith in Jesus. This is the priority and greatest privilege of parenthood. It starts in your home. The next several months I will share strategies to pass on the faith to the next generation. They are:

1. Leveraging Legacy- what we do today influences a multigenerational cycle of family traits.
2. Family Relationships-in this context, children embrace the beliefs and values of parents.
3. Point of View- Parents provide a corrective lens of truth to help children navigate the deceiving paths of life.
4. More Show than Tell- Our children can only learn what we show them.

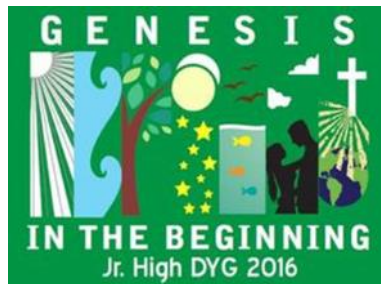

These are the principles of Legacy, Likelihood, Lenses and Learning that Kurt Brunner and Steve Stroup highlight in their book It Starts at Home.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH OPPORTUNITIES FOR HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH

Our High School youth group gathers weekly around God's Word. Every Thursday evening at 7 to 8 PM at the Starbucks on W. Loker. They have just started a study and prayer time around CS Lewis' The Screwtape Letters. This is an informal group that loves to connect with each other. Our Sunday Huddle at 9:45 in the Lounge, is a leadership team that learns leadership skills and puts them into practice in ministry.

Any questions concerning Youth Ministry can be directed to Jeff Moeller, our Family Ministry Director at jeff@redeemerbythesea.org or 330-618-7837

JR. HIGH YOUTH GATHERING

The theme for this year's Jr. High Gathering is "In The Beginning" based on Genesis 1-3. Speaker Laura Kuegele will guide us through the creation story. In her session we will see how God has made us and called us "good." We will explore how we sin and how the relationship is broken with God, one another, and creation. Most importantly we will affirm the redemptive work of Christ on the cross and our promise of Salvation through faith in Jesus.

Date: March 5-6, 2016

Cost: $95 prior to Jan. 29 and $105 prior to Feb. 16.

This includes lunch, dinner, transportation, lodging and a T-shirt

Place: Concordia University Irvine. We will be staying 4 to a room at the Holiday Inn OC Airport

We leave from Redeemer's parking lot at 7:30 am on Saturday, March 5. The first mass event begins at 9:30 am. The gathering will conclude around 11:00 am on Sunday, March 6. We will be back at Redeemer at 12:30.

TAKING STOCK FUNDRAISER

The LCMS National Youth Gathering is a life-defining and faith-shaping experience. This summer in New Orleans, our young people will be joining 25,000 other youth from around the world in the name of Jesus, to pray, praise, serve, grow and play. In addition, our young people will daily take part in a Bible study and prayer partner experiences. They will have valuable opportunity to live, share and grow in the love of Christ. It will cost approximately $1200 a person. Will you help our young people in this effort? We have 3 goals

1. Raise at least $4000 that will enable our youth to participate in the LCMS National Youth Gathering.
2. Connect members of our congregation with the gathering experience through conversations, postcards, web site, social media and a shareholders dinner.
3. Connect teens with caring adults with the prayer that this relationship will continue beyond the gathering here at Redeemer by the Sea.

More information and a prospectus will be available at the Youth Sunday worship service on January 31.
