“The bread he proffers is his Body, and the cup or wine is his Blood, of the New Testament in his Blood. In childlike faith we should partake, without doubting, and believe it to be so.”

- Martin Luther, Sermon for Maundy Thursday of 1534

“Therefore, we should leave God’s Word and work undisputed and ask only who has spoken the Word and who has done the work, whether God or man has spoken it, whether it is God’s or man’s work. If it is God’s Word and work, close your eyes, do not dispute and inquire as to how it comes about, but believe that God is all-omnipotent and truthful in his words and work.”

- Martin Luther, Sermon for Maundy Thursday of 1534

“The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah.”

– Jeremiah 31:31

“I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.”
– Jeremiah 31:31
