

JOY

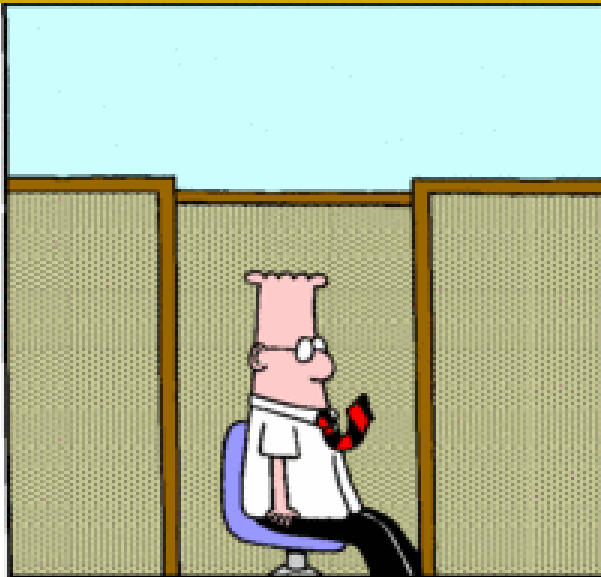

IN THE JOURNEY

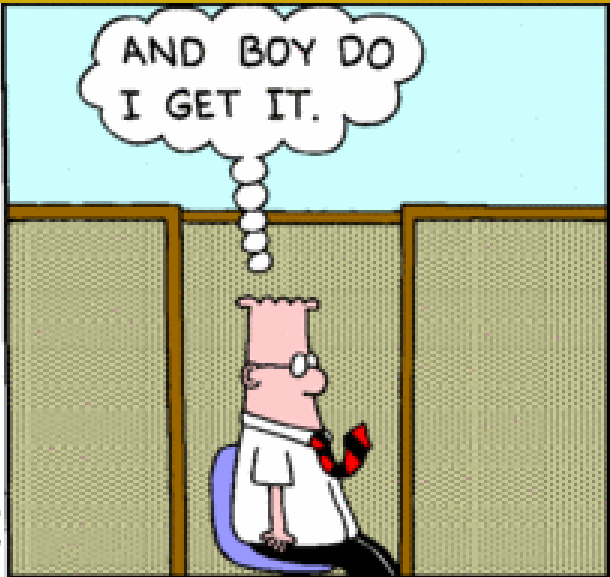

JOY ON THE JOB

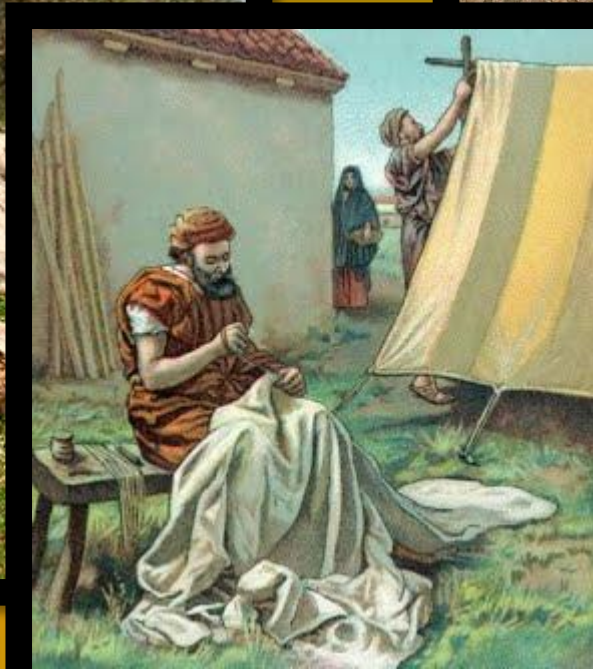

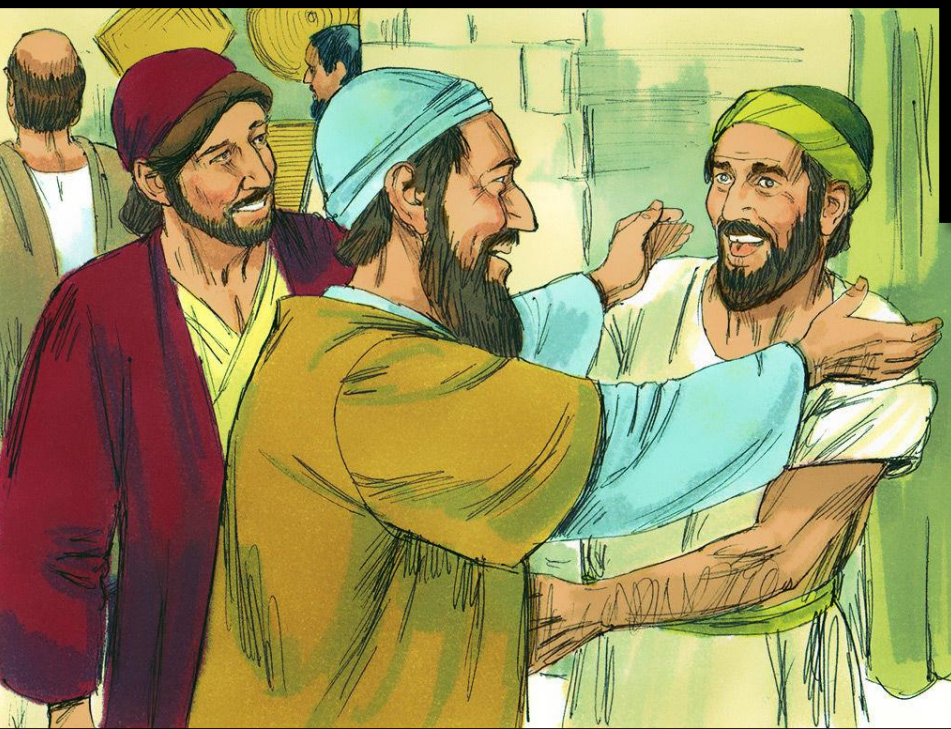

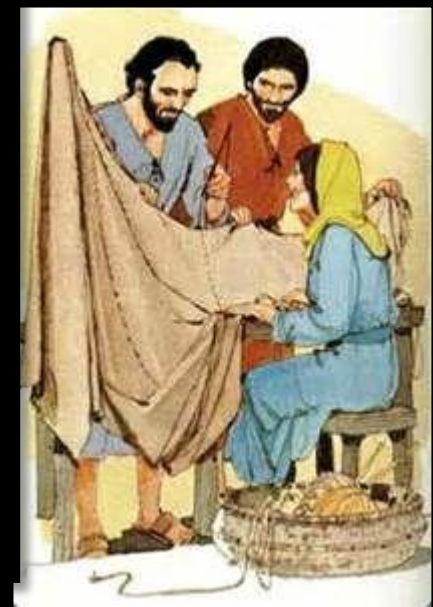

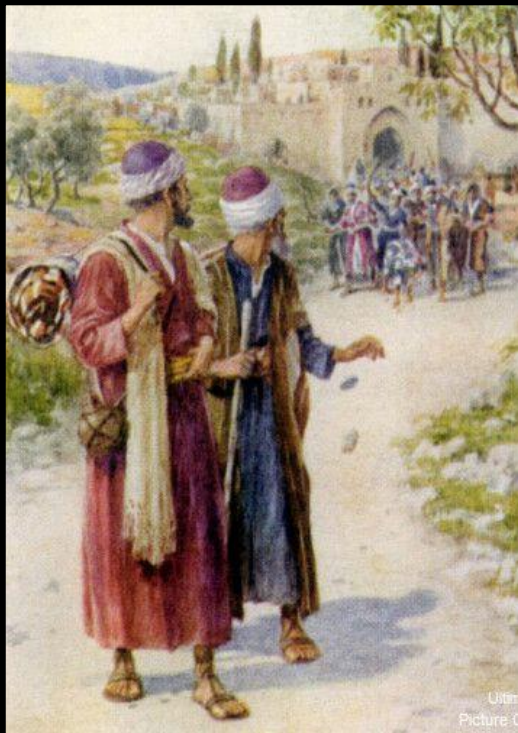

S. Adams E-mail: SCOTTADAMS@AOL.COM

10/11/97 © 1997 United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

Open Bibles to Philippians 2:19-30

To have more joy on the job....

I. Take a genuine interest in others.

To have more joy on the job....

I. Take a genuine interest in others.

“I have no one else like him, who will show genuine concern for your welfare. For everyone looks out for their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.” – Philippians 2:20-21

To have more joy on the job....

I. Take a genuine interest in others.

“I have no one else like him, who will show genuine concern for your welfare. For everyone looks out for their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.” – Philippians 2:20-21

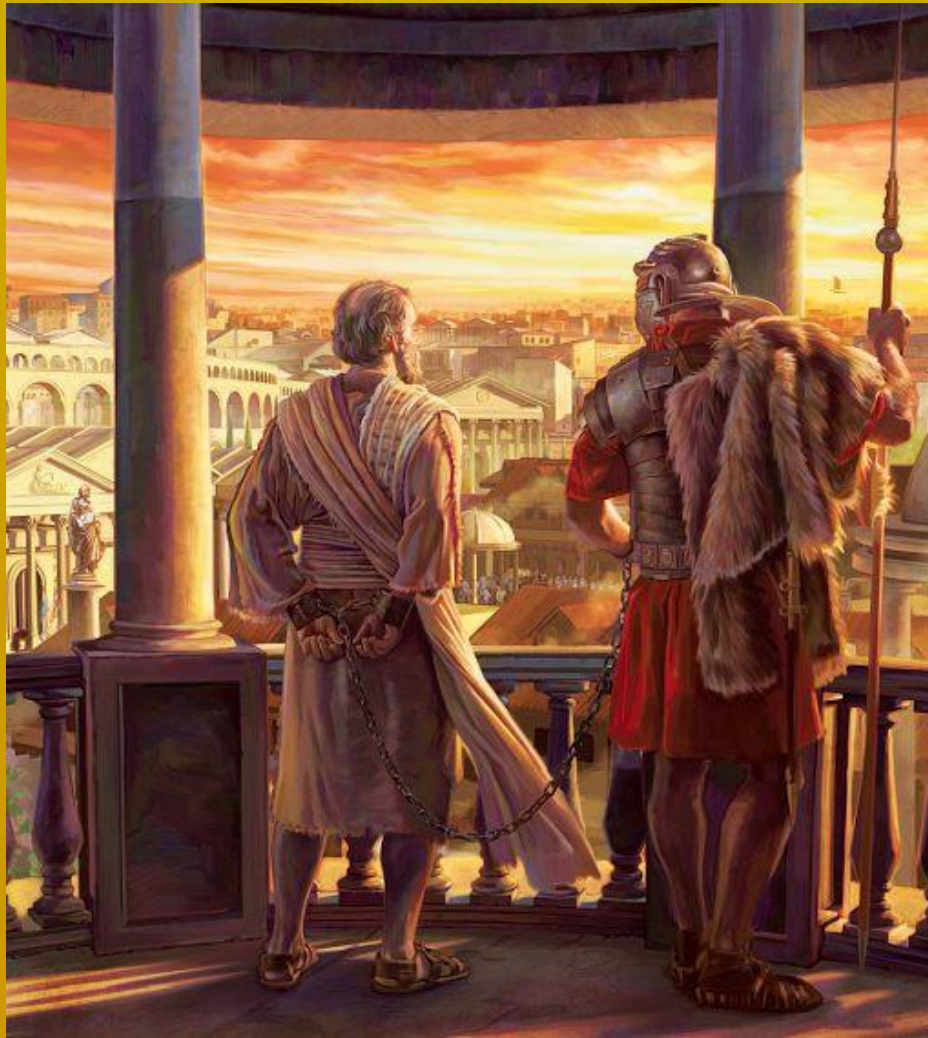

To have more joy on the job....

I. Take a genuine interest in others.

“I have no one else like him, who will show genuine concern for your welfare. For everyone looks out for their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.” – Philippians 2:20-21

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
 1. You prepare yourself

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
 1. You prepare yourself
 2. You prove yourself.

“Timothy has proved himself because, as a son with his father, he served with me in the work of the gospel.” – Philippians 2:22

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.

“I think it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker and fellow soldier.” – Philippians 2:25

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.

“I think it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker and fellow soldier.” – Philippians 2:25

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.

“I think it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker and fellow soldier.” – Philippians 2:25

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.

“I think it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker and fellow soldier.” – Philippians 2:25

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.
- IV. Respect your leaders.

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.
- IV. Respect your leaders.
 1. Maximize their potential.

Therefore I'm all the more eager to send him that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety."

– Philippians 2:28

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.
- IV. Respect your leaders.
 1. Maximize their potential.
 2. Minimize their anxiety.

Therefore I'm all the more eager to send him that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety."

– Philippians 2:28

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.
- IV. Respect your leaders.
- V. Honoring those who work well.

To have more joy on the job....

V. Honoring those who work well.

1. You can recognize them.

To have more joy on the job....

V. Honoring those who work well.

1. You can recognize them.

“But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs.”

– Philippians 2:25

To have more joy on the job....

V. Honoring those who work well.

1. You can recognize them.

“But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs.”

– Philippians 2:25

To have more joy on the job....

V. Honoring those who work well.

1. You can recognize them.

2. You can reward them.

To have more joy on the job....

V. Honoring those who work well.

1. You can recognize them.

2. You can reward them.

“But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs.”

– Philippians 2:25

To have more joy on the job....

- I. Take a genuine interest in others.
- II. Associate with those more experienced.
- III. Improve your relationships.
- IV. Respect your leaders.
- V. Honoring those who work well.
- VI. You've got to risk.

To have more joy on the job....

VI. You've got to risk.

“He was ill and almost died but God had mercy on him.” ... “Welcome him in the Lord with great joy. Honor men like him because he almost died for the work of Christ, risking his life...” – Philippians 2:27, 29-30

To have more joy on the job....

VI. You've got to risk.

“For God has not given us a spirit of fear and timidity, but of power, love, and self-discipline” – 2 Timothy 1:7, NLT

To have more joy on the job....

VI. You've got to risk.

“No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God.” – Luke 9:62

