

SERMON: THE CHRISTMAS STORY (LUKE 2:1-20)

Pastor Augie Iadicicco

December 24, 2018 – Christmas Eve

Regarding The Christmas Story, you may have some questions: What is this story about? Is it just a series of random events: a decree from an emperor, a virgin expecting a child, angels appearing to make an announcement, magi from the east, and no room at the inn? Is there any reason to think that these events really happened? And if so, why do they matter to you?

“Let me tell you _____...”

The difference between “_____” story and “_____” Story

Luke 1:1-4

“With this in mind, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I too decided to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.” – Luke 1:3-4

The Christmas Story is the _____ of God acting in history.

Luke 2:1-20, Matthew 1:18-25

While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them. – Luke 2:6-7

1. Not just the birth of a child, but the birth of our _____

Luke 1:46-56, c.f. Judges 13-16

2. Not random events, but a _____ unfolding with _____.

Genesis 3:15, Genesis 12:1-3, Exodus 12:14, John 1:29, Luke 1:31-33

“You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. 32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, 33 and he will reign over Jacob’s descendants forever; his kingdom will never end.” – Luke 1:31-33

God’s Story continues _____ as I _____ Him.

Luke 1:37, 38, 45; Ephesians 1:11

“I am the Lord’s servant,” Mary answered. “May your word to me be fulfilled.” Then the angel left her. – Luke 1:38

Questions for individual or group reflection:

What is your favorite childhood fairy tale? Hollywood movie?

Do you think of the Christmas Story as a fairy tale or myth?

How do you tell the difference between a fable and a true story?

What sort of evidence do you need to believe something happened?

When you read Luke 1:1-4, how does the story of Christ’s birth compare?

How would you tell the Christmas Story in your own words?

What difference did Christ’s birth make for the world?

How is Jesus like the Judge Samson? (Judges 13-16)

What difference does Christ’s birth make in your life?

What would you have done if you were the Virgin Mary after hearing the angel’s message? (Read Luke 1:38)

How then might you respond in the difficult seasons of life? (See Ephesians 1:11)

What do you need to trust God to unfold in your life?

How might next year be different because of this Christmas?

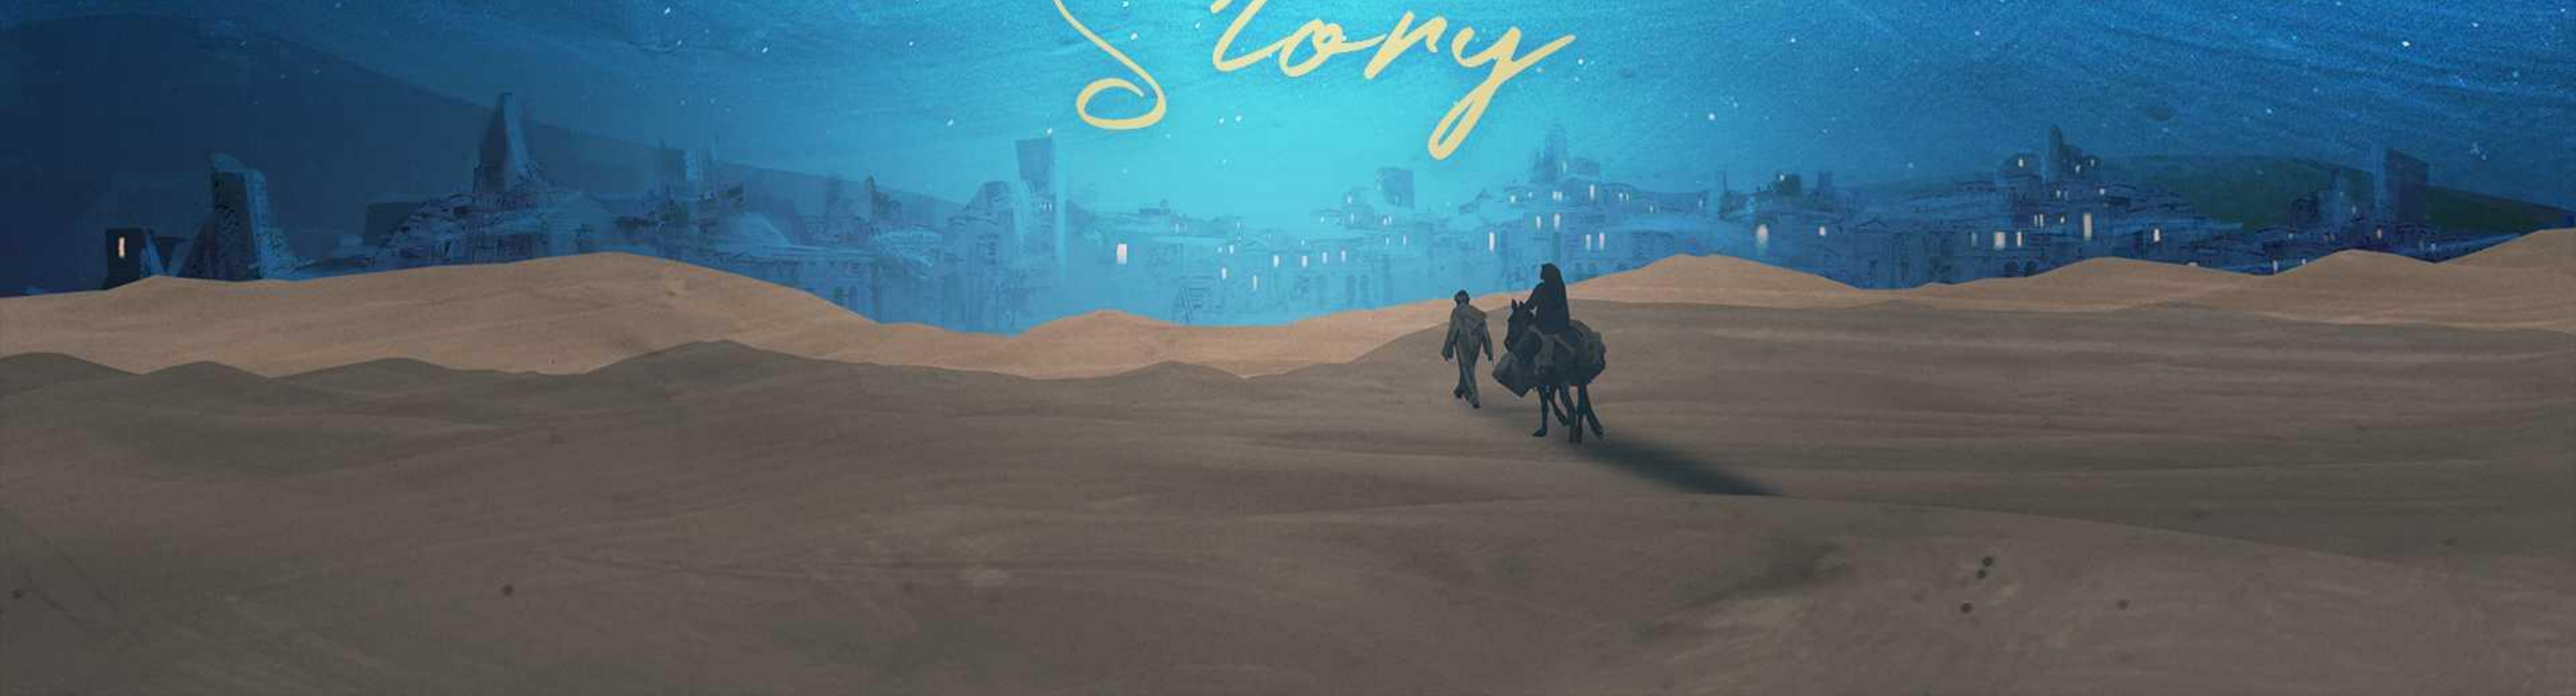

Taking it home / Memory Verse:

“I am the Lord’s servant,” Mary answered. “May your word to me be fulfilled.”

THE STORY

READ THE STORY. EXPERIENCE THE BIBLE.

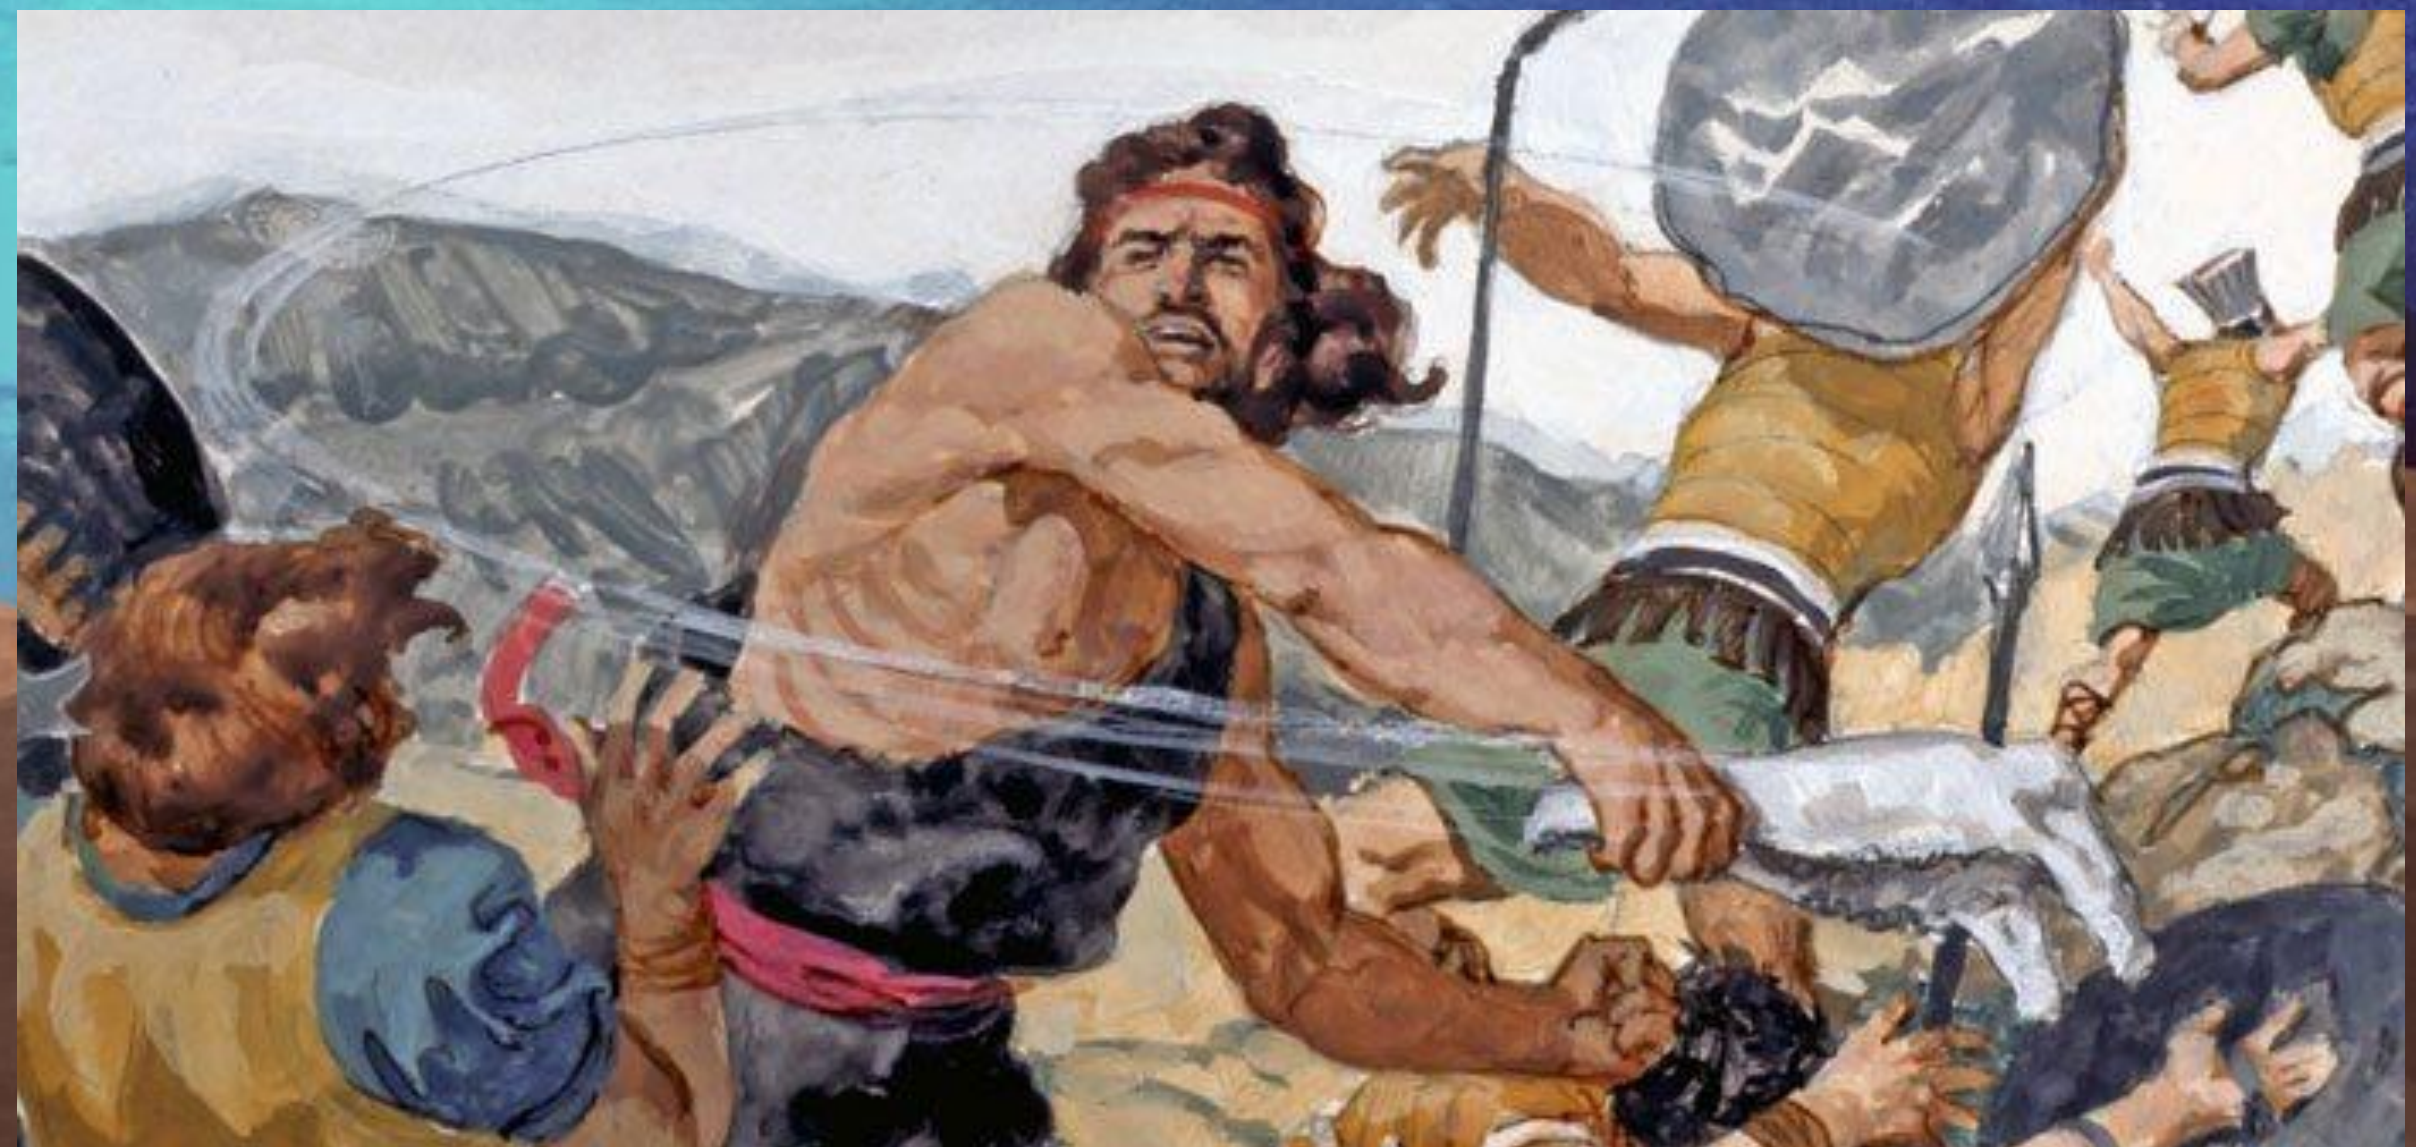

The background of the image is a dark night sky filled with stars. A single, exceptionally bright star with a four-pointed starburst effect is positioned at the top center. Below the sky, a cityscape is visible, with buildings and lights glowing in a blue and white hue. In the foreground, a desert landscape with rolling sand dunes is shown in a warm, golden-brown color. Two small figures, one on a horse and one walking, are seen in the distance, moving across the dunes towards the city.
