Ignore the Present by Living in the Past

¹⁰ As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up, and there were the Egyptians, marching after them. They were terrified and cried out to the LORD. ¹¹ They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you brought us to the desert to die?"

- Exodus 14:10-11

What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt? ¹² Didn't we say to you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians'? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert!"

- Exodus 14:11-12

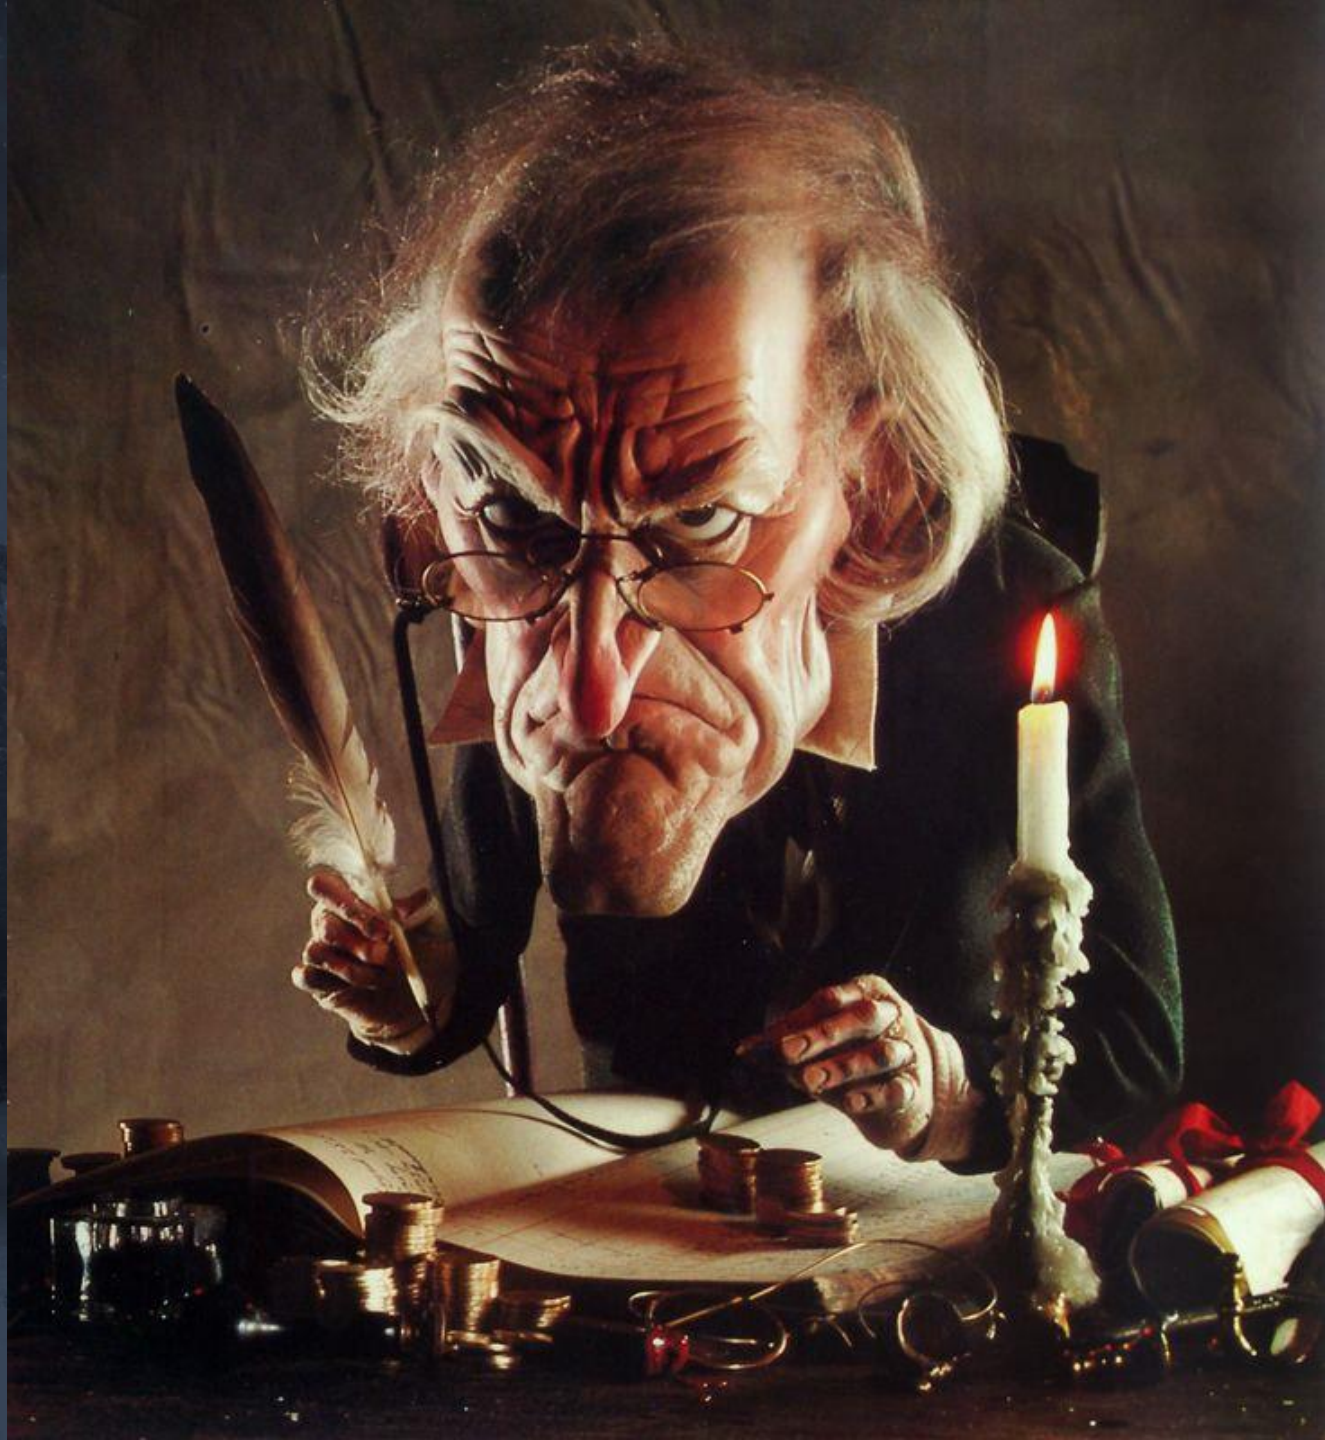

"If only we had died by the LORD's hand in Egypt! There we sat around pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted, but you have brought us out into this desert to starve this entire assembly to death."

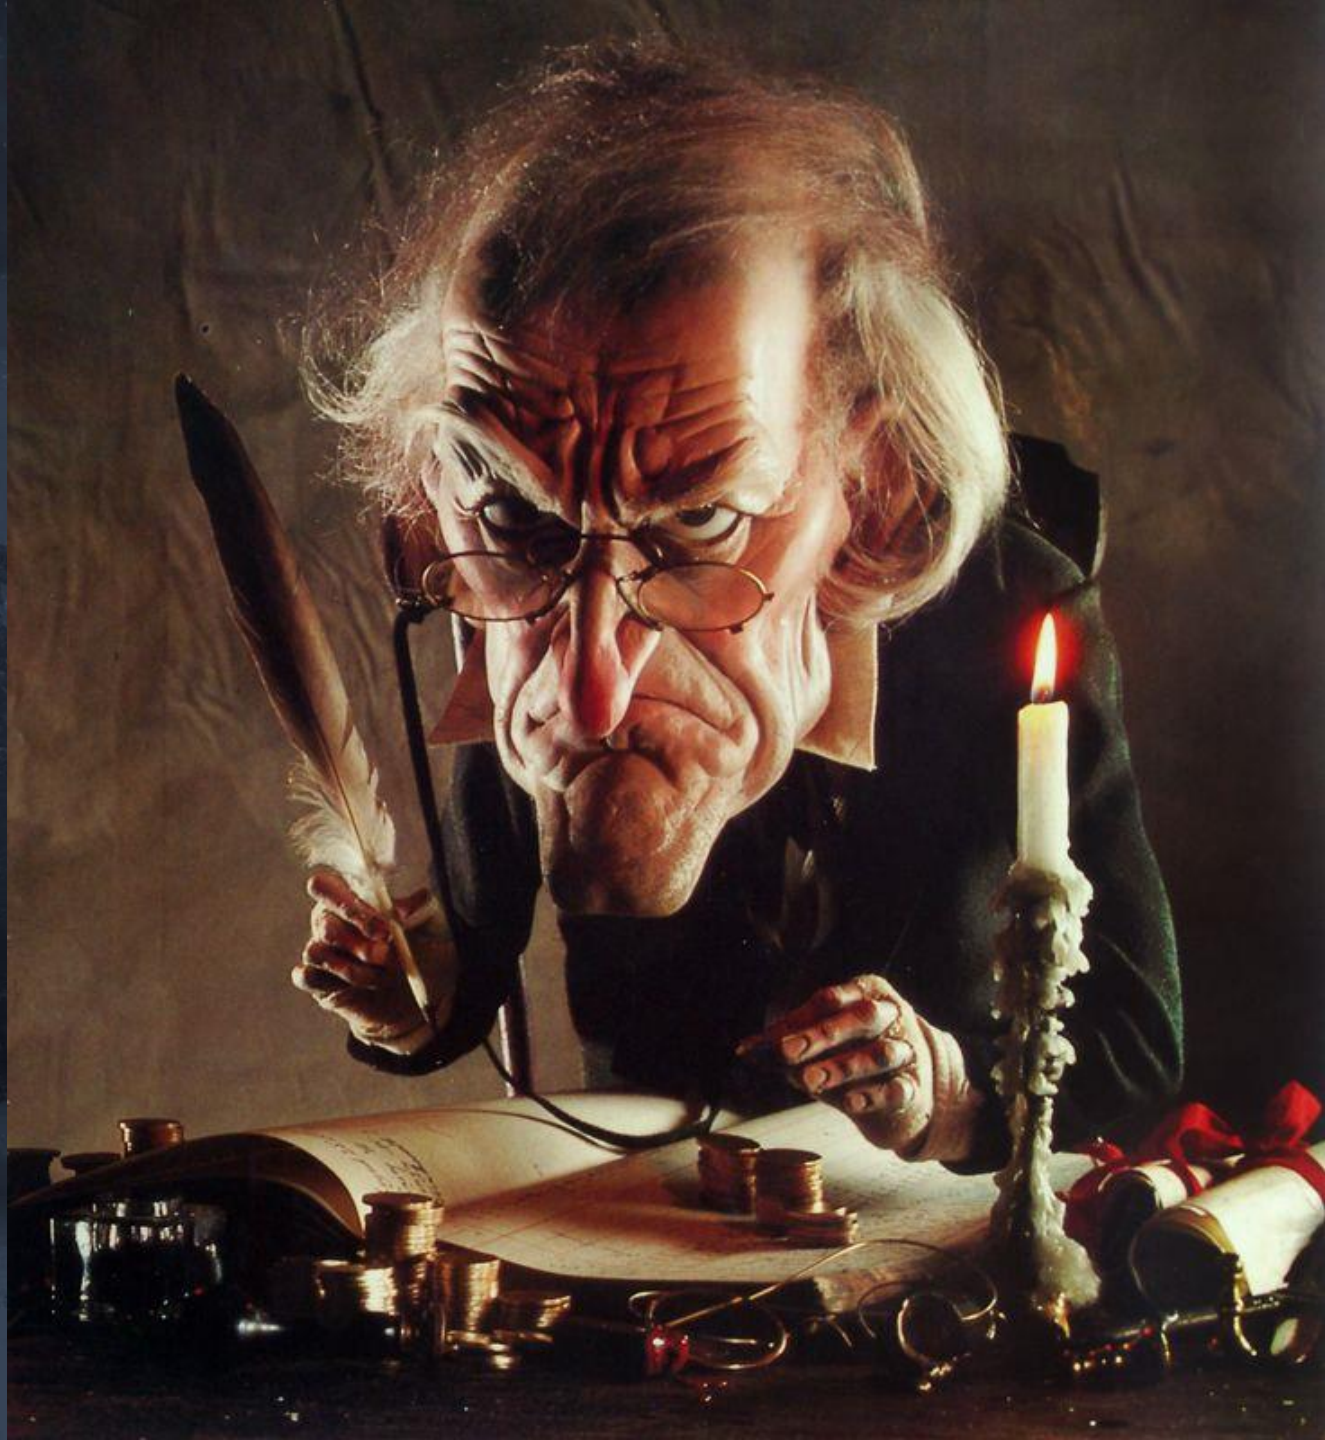

- Exodus 16:3

A serene winter scene with a snow-covered ground and several evergreen trees. The sky is dark and filled with falling snow, creating a soft, hazy atmosphere. The text is centered in the upper half of the image.

Ignore the Present by Living in the Future

¹⁶And he told them this parable: "The ground of a certain rich man produced a good crop. ¹⁷He thought to himself, 'What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.'

¹⁸"Then he said, 'This is what I'll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

- Luke 12:16-20

19 And I'll say to myself, "You have plenty of good things laid up for many years.

Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry." '

20 "But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?'

- Luke 12:16-20

A serene winter landscape with snow-covered evergreen trees and a misty sky, serving as a background for the text. The scene is captured in a cool, blue-toned palette, with soft, out-of-focus snowflakes falling from the sky. The trees are silhouetted against the light, creating a peaceful and contemplative atmosphere.

Living in the Present

³³But he replied, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death."

³⁴Jesus answered, "I tell you, Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will deny three times that you know me."
