

FILLED – WITH JOY (1 Corinthians 15:12-22)

We live in a world that saps us and drains us at every turn. If it's not the demanding work schedule, it's the cost of living. If it's not the cut-throat competition, it's the hair-pulling traffic. And if it's not strife in the news or on social media, it's strife in our relationships. Isn't there something that can fill us up rather than wear us down? Yes there is, but it's not a something, it's a Someone. Jesus said, "These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full." (John 15:11, ESV). Come and be filled by the joy that only comes through Jesus, the Son of God.

Questions for individual or group reflection:

What are some things that sap your joy in life?

What works for you to re-energize?

Do you agree that "I forgive you" is one of the most important things that people need to hear?

For what do you need to be forgiven?

Do you believe that God forgives you because of His Son Jesus?

How does the Resurrection of Jesus show that sin is forgiven?

Where is your greatest source of power?

If you have access to the same power that raised Jesus from the grave, then what can't you do in faith?

How should you live if you know that death has been defeated?

What hope do you have beyond the grave?

Do you trust God that He has prepared a place for you in eternity?

Pray: Lord God, fill me with your joy. Restore to me the joy of your salvation knowing that I have been forgiven all of my sins because of your Son Jesus. Thank you, God! Help me to remain in you as a branch remains in the vine, and by abiding in you cause your power to flow into me and out through me to those around me. Cause me to live for you and to know that even after I leave this earth I will have eternal life in you because you have triumphed over the grave. As Jesus prayed, may your joy be in me and may my joy be full. Amen!

Do:

- Receive God's complete forgiveness for any and all of your sins. Confess. Repent. Believe and Receive!
- Live as though the power of the Resurrection is available to you.
- Live without fear of death – not recklessly, but hopefully – knowing that your life in Christ begins now and continues for all eternity!

Memory Verse: "These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full." – John 15:11, ESV

A photograph taken from inside a dark, stone-walled tomb. The opening of the tomb is an irregular, roughly-hewn archway. Through this opening, a bright sunrise is visible, with the sun low on the horizon, casting a golden glow across the sky and the landscape. The sky is filled with soft, white and yellow clouds. In the distance, a dark silhouette of a hill or mountain range is visible against the bright sky. On the crest of this hill, three crosses are visible, standing in a row. The foreground inside the tomb is dark and rocky, with some dry grass or reeds growing near the opening. The overall mood is one of hope and new beginnings.

3. The Joy of God's Triumph

“death is the bully on the block of life.
‘Your time is coming!’ he taunts. Oh
we try and prove him wrong. We jog.
We diet. But we know that we will only, at best, postpone it.”

- Max Lucado

The background of the image shows a field of wheat under a soft, hazy sky. The wheat stalks are in the foreground, slightly out of focus, and extend towards the right side of the frame. The overall color palette is warm and natural, with shades of green, yellow, and brown. A semi-transparent white rectangular area is overlaid on the center of the image, containing the text.
