

HE'S STILL* GOT THE WHOLE
WORLD IN HIS HANDS

Maintaining Hope

Pastor Augie Iadicicco

May 24, 2020

HE'S STILL* GOT
THE WHOLE WORLD
IN HIS HANDS

How do we remain hopeful in a world that seems hopelessly broken? How do we continue to trust a God that seems conspicuously absent? How do we find peace in a world that is spinning out of control? If you've ever asked questions like these, you're not alone. The uncertainty we face today is no different from the uncertainty faced by the men and women of the Bible. And like them, uncertainty can cause us to question God's faithfulness, His presence and His concern. What or whom you are hoping in determines your ability to maintain hope. Our hope is in God's love for us. When life is uncertain, God is not. He's still got the whole world in his hands.

"May your unfailing love be with us, LORD, even as we put our hope in you." - Psalm 33:22

My Next Step(s):

- I will examine the frustrations in my life to determine on what I've built my hopes.
- I will take comfort in knowing that nothing in all creation can separate me from the love of God in Christ Jesus.
- I will place my hope in Christ Jesus my Lord.

Memory Verse: "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." – Romans 8:38-39

(Continues on back.)

(This message uses materials provided by North Point Ministries & open.life.church.)