When life is going terribly wrong, do you still trust God has a plan? He is a God of order. Set your eyes on Him and let your story tell of His faithfulness...

“Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good?
But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed.
‘Do not fear their threats; do not be frightened.’”
– 1 Peter 3:13-14, NIV

My Next Step(s):

- I will live eager to do good, rather than reactively respond in anger.
- Even when being mistreated, I will remember that I am blessed.
- I will reverently fear God, rather than fearing those who threaten me.
- I will prepare my testimony by walking close to God—adoring Him.
- I will live in a way that invites others to ask me about the hope I have in Christ.

Memory Verse: “But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect” - 1 Peter 3:15, NIV
