

RE-OPENING CHRISTIANITY:

Am I a Contributor or a Consumer?

One of the best ways we can show our faith to our world is by contributing to needs. In the early church, Tabitha was well known for serving others. Her death caused many to grieve, but her new life became a testimony of Jesus' power. What do we want our lives to contribute to this world?

“This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person?” – 1 John 3:16-17, NIV

(Continues on back.)

My Next Step(s):

- I will make a decision to contribute intentionally.
- I will discover “my thing” that God has blessed me with, so I can give personally.
- I will collaborate and be a part of a greater work than I can accomplish alone.

Memory Verse: “And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.” - 2 Cor. 9:8, NIV
