

SOLA - WHAT MATTERS MOST:

Christ Alone—Solus Christus

Pastor Augie Iadicicco

November 1, 2020 - All Saints' Sunday

It is tempting to exalt ourselves over Christ. John the Baptist, however, knew that things work the way they should only when we decrease and Christ increases. In what ways are you trying to add your boasting to Christ's work? How does that lessen your hope?

“And at three in the afternoon Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” (which means “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”).

— Mark 15:34

“John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River.” — Mark 1:4-5

My Next Step(s):

- I will find my hope and place the confidence of my salvation in Christ alone!
- I will point to Jesus by my attitude of humility.
- I will point to Jesus by my loving service of others.
- I will point to Jesus by speaking of what He has done for me, and His love for us.

Memory Verse: “He must become greater; I must become less.” — John 3:30, NIV
