When it comes to understanding God, it can be all too tempting to trust ourselves rather than God’s Word. We try to trust our consciences, our culture, or our comprehension. But going beyond God’s Word either allows us to create a God in our own image (Mark 7:1-13) or saddles us with burdens we cannot bear (Matthew 23:4).

“Every word of God is flawless; He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him. Do not add to His words, or He will rebuke you and prove you a liar.” - Proverbs 30:5-6

My Next Step(s):

- I will not subtract from the Word of God, or ignore it.
- I will not add to the Word of God—rules, regulations, traditions or otherwise.
- I will not make God in my image, rather I will conform my life to the Word of God.
- I will find a time, place and pattern (tools) to daily experience the Word of God!

Memory Verse: “All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.” – 2 Timothy 3:16-17
