We're part of something much bigger than ourselves. Walking through each line of the Apostle's

Creed, this seven-part series looks at the foundation of our Christian beliefs, the staples of our faith, the message of the Bible, and what it all means for our lives today and the eternity to come.

What do we believe? The foundation of the Christian faith begins with the One who created it all — almighty God and loving Father.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

My Next Step(s):

- I will share my "beliefs" with others, so that these truths might work faith in them.
- I will learn more about Almighty God, so that He may better use me for His work.
- I will discover what I have in common with other Christians—what unites us.
- I will respect that my faith connects me to almost 2,000 years of Christians—and seek to pass on that faith to the next generation.

Memory Verse: "Lift up your eyes and look to the heavens: Who created all these? He who brings out the starry host one by one and calls forth each of them by name. Because of his great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing." – Isaiah 40:26
