

THE TEN(DER) COMMANDMENTS

Part 10: “What’s Yours Is Mine ”

Coveting is a dangerous sin because you can fall prey to it without anyone around you knowing it. It is first a sin of the heart. And it will make you miserable. How can we be content rather than covetous?

“You shall not covet your neighbor’s house. You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.” – Exodus 20:17

Woe to those who plan iniquity, to those who plot evil on their beds!
At morning’s light they carry it out because it is in their power to do it.
They covet fields and seize them,
and houses, and take them.
They defraud people of their homes,
they rob them of their inheritance.
– Micah 2:1-2

Notes:

My Next Step(s):

- I will resist comparing myself to others
- I will not wear myself out trying to have what others have.
- I will cultivate a spirit of gratitude by rejoicing in what I have.
- I will strive to use my possessions to help others.
- I will refocus my attention on the things that will last, rather than the things of the world. (Matthew 6:33)

Memory Verse: “But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.” – Matthew 6:33

Exodus 20:17

“You shall not covet your neighbor’s house. You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”

Exodus 20:17

Woe to those who plan iniquity, to those who plot evil on their beds! At morning's light they carry it out because it is in their power to do it.

Micah 2:1

Woe to those who plan iniquity, to those who plot evil on their beds! At morning's light they carry it out because it is in their power to do it.

Micah 2:1

They covet fields and seize them, and houses, and take them. They defraud people of their homes, they rob them of their inheritance.

Micah 2:2

“covet” - chamed

⁹ The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; the rules of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether. ¹⁰ More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold.

Psalm 19:9-10

They covet fields and seize them, and houses, and take them. They defraud people of their homes, they rob them of their inheritance.

Micah 2:2

Coveting always leaves us unsatisfied.

Therefore, the LORD says: “I am planning disaster against this people, from which you cannot save yourselves. You will no longer walk proudly, for it will be a time of calamity.”

Micah 2:3

Conquering Covetousness

Conquering Covetousness

Don't let your desires define you.

When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

Genesis 3:6

Dear friends, I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul.

1 Peter 2:11

Conquering Covetousness

Don't let your desires define you.

Desire what the world overlooks.

²⁷ God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. ²⁸ He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things – and the things that are not – to nullify the things that are.

1 Corinthians 1:27-28

“But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

Matthew 6:33

Conquering Covetousness

Don't let your desires define you.

Desire what the world overlooks.

Be thankful.
